

Camp Cann-Edi-on

Camp-Cann-Edi-On is a YWCA summer camp located on Sheep Bridge Road along the Big Conewago Creek. The camp is over 200 acres of mostly wooded area and was founded in 1930. The original stone house still stands on the property. Edith Beard Cannon (1880-1949) was president of the YWCA at the time of the land purchase and was honored by the name.
