

History Speakers York County and More 5/25/23

Tom Davidson: The historic Lincoln Highway (Route 462 and Route 30) in York County and across Pennsylvania. This includes buildings and other landmarks along the route.

Contact: Tom.Davidson2642@comcast.net

Sterling Fritz: Genealogical research, Southern York County family research and community history, local church history.

Contact: ?

Thomas Steele: Red Lion history topics; bottle collecting.

Contact: ?

Don Robinson: Topics from Delta/Peach Bottom Township, including Welsh immigrants and slate quarrying.

Contact: sprintnut2@gmail.com

Steve Nicolas: York industrialist S. Morgan Smith.

Contact: saintnic1967@gmail.com

Stephen H. Smith: Topics from YorksPast blog.

Contact: Stephen.smith4@comcast.net

June Lloyd: Select from 10 programs covering various aspects of York County History.

Contact: yepa89@msn.com

Chris Hertig: Terrorism in the US; law enforcement history; history of security; police history; Underground Railroad slave hunters and enslavers.

Contact: chrisahertig@yahoo.com

Ted Sickler: York families since the 1950's; "The Conspiracy of 1803."

Contact: tsickler@lnpnews.com

Scott Mingus: Civil War, Underground Railroad, regional railroad topics, Lincoln funeral train, history of papermaking in York County.

Contact: scottmingus@yahoo.com

Ron Hershner: Themes from his book: "Letters from Home: York County, Pennsylvania, during the Civil War." Also, leadership lessons from Abraham Lincoln.

Contact: rhershner@stockandleader.com

Eleanor Boggs Shoemaker: The story of York County's parks.

Contact: wpebs@earthlink.net

Jim McClure: Hex Murder; WWII/York Plan; Civil War; Presidential visits; women in York County history; York County Black history; York County Latino history; American Revolution era.
Contact: jimclure21@outlook.com

Jeffrey Kirkland: Black history/Black experience in York. Founder and chief researcher of the York African American Historical Preservation Society. Wrote about James Smallwood and his schoolhouse that educated African Americans in York in the 1800s until 1955. ()
Contact: iced1@comcast.net; JKIRK@yorkblackhistory.com

J. Ross McGinnis: Hex Murder and trials.
Contact: jrmcginnis@stockandleader.com

Charles Stambaugh: Northeastern York County History in Preservation (Mount Wolf, Manchester, and York Haven regions and Forest Park.
Contact: neychip@gmail.com

Donna Peace: Speaks on New Freedom and region; Summit Grove Campground; abolitionist Amanda Berry Smith; Rock Chapel Cemetery; and more.
Contact: donnapeace8@gmail.com

Ken Weiler: Published author; various WWII topics and local areas.
Contact: kweiler1@comcast.net

Friends of Lebanon Cemetery: historically Black cemetery in North York.
Contact: info@friendsoflebanoncemetery.com

Dominish Marie Miller: Hometown History: Jamie and Domi's YoCo Backstory (with Jamie Kinsley); Northern York County history; Civil War/Women in the Civil War.
Contact: dominishmiller@gmail.com

Jamie Kinsley: Hometown History: Jamie and Domi's YoCo Backstory (with Domi Miller); York County agricultural/farming history; PA Dutch food culture; Golden Venture; home remedies; Appalachian Trail thru-hiker Earl Shaffer.
Contact: jamietyson2442@gmail.com

Jeri Jones: Geology and fossils of York County and the region; dinosaurs; caves; earthquakes; rocks; quarries.
Contact: jonesgeo@comcast.net

OLLI at Penn State York: Presenters will tell how this organization offers community members, age 50 plus, educational, social, travel, and volunteer experiences with the goal of enhancing and enriching their lives.
Contact: olli@york.psu.edu

Captain Jack Dillman: Travel on the Susquehanna River throughout the years.
Contact: 717-692-3291

Jack Graham: Keystone Marker Trust: Preserves 1920's era cast iron town name signs across PA; will speak on the markers, the trust, and preservation.
Contact: kmtjtg@yahoo.com, 717-582-2235

Peter Levy: Professor at York College and author and speaker on the York race riots of 1960s.
Contact: plevy@ycp.edu

Richard Wilton: Family of Wilton Armetale manufacturing of Wrightsville, PA.

Joe Baker-Archaeology, Penn Dot and former DCNR
Contact: ?

Mia Bay-Race within the Colonial Era (UPenn History Chair)
Contact: mbay@sas.upen.edu

Dr. Kenneth C. Wolensky-Labor History, George Leader, Pinchot family
Contact: kwolensky@comcast.net

William C. Kashatus-History/Education background, wrote about history of PA Baseball and Underground Railroad
Contact: historylive.net (contact page)

Nicholas Bonneau- Adjunct at Franklin and Marshall, specializes in History of Science, Medicine, and Death
Contact: Nicholas.bonneau@fandm.edu www.fandm.edu/nicholas-bonneau

Rissa Miller: York-based ghost stories or history of PA witches, general history of divination, or a general/fun history of superstitions.
Contact: rissam.writes@gmail.com

Dr. Jennifer Pomeroy: Professor of Geography at York College; specializes in Geography, GIS, and Urban Land Use/Sustainability
Contact: jpomeroy@ycp.edu

Guy Dunham: Retired pastor of First Presbyterian Church; speaks on First Presbyterian, Faith Presbyterian, and other religious history.
Contact: gwdunham3445@gmail.com

Greg Halpin: Police Heritage Museum; Old Fire Farts of York County
Contact: greg@halpin.com

Christian Murgia: The new York County History Center Steam plant building
Contact: cmurgia@yorkhistorycenter.org

Craig Sansonetti: Ma & Pa Railroad
Contact: sansonet@erols.com

Duane Close: Lone Eagle Plains Indian
Contact: duane@declose.com 717-873-2900

Tom Davidson: Lincoln Highway Legacy LLC , The Construction and Dedication of the Columbia Wrightsville Memorial Bridge, The Creation of The Haines Shoe House,
Contact: tom.Davidson264@gmail.com

James Hayney: plays President Lincoln
Contact: jjhayney@hotmail.com <http://lookingforalincoln.com/>

Rich Buck Buchanan: 1st Air Cavalry Division Vietnam War.
Contact: buckchopper@aol.com

Mike Maloney: Accomac Inn
Contact: acrossstheriverbook@yahoo.com

Craig Sansoetti: Ma Pa Railroad
Contact: ansonet@erols.com

Jame Hayney: He is a life member of the National Association Abraham Lincoln Presenters.
Contact: jjhaynet@hotmail.com lookingforalincoln.com/