

Redlands Friends Meetinghouse Tour

Saturday September 14, 1:00PM* or 2:30PM*

Come learn about the Quakers, their local history, their order of service and their meetinghouse.

The meetinghouse was built in 1811. Not much has changed over the 200 years. The seating is still on wooden benches. There are no utilities nor rest rooms. A small congregation still uses this location during the summer months.

Located on route 382 Lewisberry Rd at the intersections of York Road and Old Quaker Road just past Lewisberry Self Storage which is two miles west of Newberrytown.

*Due to the limited seating, you must RSVP to NeyChip@gmail.com your tour time.

The NeyChip History Center is now open in the York Haven Library. Sat 9-12
Tues, Wed 4:30-6:30
717-266-1574

