

2017 NEYCHIP

North Eastern York County History in Preservation
NeyChip.com

“Controversies Over the Susquehanna Trail”

Two presentations both on Monday Sept 18

10 AM Northeastern Senior Center

131 Center St Mount Wolf PA

7 PM Manchester Township Historical Society

Johnston Park 2085 Lewisberry Rd York PA

Charles Stambaugh will speak about the Susquehanna Trail creation and how Williamsport tried to stop and remove it from York County.

Monday Sept 25 at 7 PM 245 Chestnut St Mt Wolf PA

“Tips in Applying Family Research Skills to Public History.”

This entertaining talk focuses on 25 tips in applying family research skills to public history. The presenter, Stephen H. Smith, is a retired engineer, a genealogist, and historian, who wrote an award-winning history of Barshinger Families in America; a branch of his family. An interest in local history is used to enhance his family histories and in the development of locally oriented presentations. He also writes for the public on his popular "YorksPast" blog on the York Daily Record site

Monday Oct 24 at 7 PM 245 Chestnut St Mt Wolf PA

NeyChip's Mardella Brenneman will speak on Daughters of the American Revolutions, Daughters of American Colonists, and South Central Pennsylvania Genealogical Society. Mardella has been an active member and greatly involved with these organizations, the York County History Center, the Mount Wolf 2010 Centennial Committee and the NeyChip.

